tify the publisher, under his frank, (as he is authorized to do) of your wish to discontinue. RATES OF ADVERTISING. One year 10 00

Business Directory.

FREMONT JOURNAL JOB PRINTING OFFICE:

We are now prepared to execute to order, in a neat and expeditions manner, and upon the faires erms; almost all descriptions of

JOB PRINTING; SUCH AS

Business Campa. BILL HEADS. BILLS OF LADING. INCULARS. HANDRILLS, CERTIFICATES, DRAFTS. CATALOGUES, PHOW BILLS, JUSTICES' BLANES, LAWYERS' BLANES, BILLS, BANK CHECKS, LAW CASES, BALL TICKETS, ETC., ETC

We would say to those of our friends who are in want of such work, you need not go abroad to get t done, when it can be done just as well at home. I. O. O. F. Chooman Lorer, No. 77, meets at the Odd Fellows' Hall, in Buckland's Brick Building, every

Saturday evening. PRASE & ROBERTS. Copper, Tin, and Sheet-iron Ware, AND DEALERS IN

Stoves, Wool, Hides, Sheep-pelts, Rags, Old Copper, Old Stoves, &c., &c. ALSO, ALL SORTS OF GENUINE YANKER NOTIONS Pease's Brick Block, No. 1. FREMONT, OHIO. J. F. PHICE. T. P. PINEFROCK.

FINEFROCK & PRICE. PLANTER SEARCELY FREMONT, OHIO. OFFICE-In Sharp & Shomae's Block

STEPHEN BUCKLAND & CO., DEALERS IN

Drugs, Medicines, Paints, Dye-Stuffs, Books, Stationany, &c.: FREMONT, OHIO. G. W. & C. S. GLICK,

Attorneys and Counsellors at Law. And Solicitors in Chancery, FREMONT, OHIO, Will attend to all business entrusted to their care in Sandurky and adjoining counties.

Also general land, collecting and insurance agents. IF OFFICE-Upstairs, opposite the Bank. CHAS, S. GLICK, GEORGE W. GLICK.

BUCKLAND & EVERETT. Attorneys and Counsellers at Law,

And Solicitors in Chancery, WILL attend to Professional business and Land Agency to Sandusky and adjoining counties. Orrice 2d Story Buckland's Block, Fremont. R. P. Buckland. [Homen Evenert. R. P. Buchland.] January 1st, 1852.

CHESTER EDGERTON: Atterney and Counsellor at Law, And Solicitor in Chancery, will carefully attend to all professional husiness left in his charge. He will also attend to the collection of claims &c., in bis and adjoining counties. Office-Second story Buckland's Block. FREMONT, OHIO.

GREENE & HAYNES.

Attorneys at Law & Solicitors in Chancery, Will give their undivided attention to professionadjourning counties.
Office—In the second story of Buckland's Block. FREMONT, OHIO.

William Ray Attorney and Connseller at Law. ALSO FIRE, LIFE & HEALTH INSURANCE AGENT Clyde, Sandusky County, Ohio.

ALLEN A. RAWSON, M. D., Will give prompt attention to the practice of MEDICINE AND SURGERY in Fremont and vicinity.

Oppier-Over Isonhour & Cole's Store.

the natural teeth, or the invertion of artificial teeth, or the invertion of the natural teeth, or the invertion of artificial teeth, or the invertion of the natural teeth, or the invertion of artificial teeth, or the invertion of the natural teeth, on the natural teeth without pain, if desired, Office in Caldwell's Brick Building, over Dr. Fremont Jan. 24, 1851.

PORTAGE COUNTY Mutual Fire Insurance Company. R. P. BUCKLAND, Agent: FREMONT, OHIO.

DR. R. S. RICE. Continues the practice of Medicinein Fremont and adjacent country. OFFICE, asf ormerly, on Frontstreet, opposite Deal's new building.

Fremont, Nov. 23, 1850.-37 BARSION HOUSE, BY J. W. ERGERER NORWALK OHIO.

CHURCH, HAYES & CO., BBERTY CHEDEDES

Straw Goods, Groceries, HATS, CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, Iron, Wails, Glass, Glass-Ware And Pittsburg Manufactures in General. Norris' Block, No. 4, April, 23, '53 TOLEDO CITY

FREMONT JOURNAL.

No Sacrifice of Principles.

VOLUME I.

FREMONT, SANDUSKY COUNTY, DECEMBER 24, 1853.

Doetry.

Little Things. A spider is a little thing.

But once a spider saved a king; The little bees are wiser fac, Than buffuloes and lions are; Little men may do much barm, Little girls may learn to charm ; Little boys may shame their sires; And little sparks become great fires. A little panimay write a word, By which a nation may be slicred; A little money wisely spent, A world of sorrow may prevent; A little counsel, rightly given, May lift a sinful soul to heaven Little losses, day by day, Would waste old Rothschild's wealth away A little agadle in the eye. May couse an elephant to die, A little fault, if left to grow, May cause a nation's overthrow; A little word but spoke in jest, May rob your neighbor of his rest; A little selfishness and pride, The kindest household may divide; Little vices many times, Out-herold felonies and crimes;

An Old-Fashioned Love Song

And little virtues, in the sum,

Great exc llencies may become.

Fairer than thee, beloved, Fairer than thee-There is but one thing, beloved, Fairer than thee.

Not the glad sun, beloved, Bright though its beams -Not the green earth, beloved, Silver with streams-

Not the gay birds, beloved, Happy and free; Yet there's one thing, beloved, Fairer than thee.

Not the clear day, beloved, Glowing with light: Not fairer still, beloved, Star-crowned night.

Truth in her might, beloved, Grand in her way, Truth with her eyes, beloved, Clearer than day-

Holy and pure, beloved, Spotless and free, Is the one thing, beloved, Fairer than thee.

Guard well thy soul, beloved, Tenth dwelling there. Shall shadow forth, beloved Her image rare.

Then shall I dream, beloved, That thou art she, And there'll be nought, beloved, Fairer than thee.

Mliscellancons.

The General's Plot.

By the Author of the "REBELS AND TORIES."

Many an incident connected with the Ameran Revolution, falls blank upon the page of ing that he desired she would see that there she hit upon this expedient.

At the hour appointed, the adjutant general eral.

from Lord Howe for the night attack upon the from the lips of the adjutant general.

would have been indeed critical. are overheard, for I'm sure there's some one ject. listening at the door."

in this miserable country."

eigns that we had been overheard."

be depended upon, I assure you." "Nevertheless," commenced the Colonel. "Nevertheless," resumed the adjutant gener, woe be to him."

screen herself behind a large chest that stood ruption or suspicion. convinced her that those suspicions were allay- veal it until the last moment history; and for want of proper record, many band, who was asleep, more than an hour ed t e British troops. The air was not cold an heroic act slumbers unremembered in the when she heard the officers descending the for the season; and the sky was somewhat dim region of the past. We do not carry our stairs -one of them pausing at the door and over ast and misty, affording a fine opportuideas of Divine interference in mundane affairs knocking. Feigning to be asleep, she did not nity for the manuevering of Gen. Howe's o far as to suppose that the finger of Omnip- answer the first summons, nor the second; and scheme. On they marched, as silently as posstence points the path for individuals to trav- not until three or four knocks were made, did sible, but as comident as Hercu es, until they and the hand of the Deity is as visibly display- but she was so much agit ted by what she had mile distant, in the valley below lay in com-ry of our country from the opening of the war vain ondeavored to ascertain the cause of her sentry heard; the silence was ominous, and Profession.

Lethean Etheradministered, and teethextracted to the establishment of peace, and the recogthe husband and wife-and two or three her own intelligence, and thus secure by well- is not favorable to the transmission of sounds spoil the child. children. They had one son in the American timed movement, the hopes and fortunes of and sights."

was a fire, and that he would expect the fam- Ascertaining that they were in want of hing arranged for the comfort of the occupants | self in her stead; but finally, when he saw her | they deserve." but the evident secrecy which seemed to sur- determination, he insisted that she should be April, 23, 33

The presence of them. Notwithstanding these objections, however, she determined to keep a watch in the plane without opposition. Getting every thing ready for her departure, and preparing here of the marble of the same of the marble of the same in the plane with a bag to give an appearance of the plane. You must go down into the passenger carred to said from the Cars free.

April, 23, 33

at her apprehensions, and made her think no more of them. Notwithstanding these objections, however, she determined to keep a watch into an engage of the plane with a bag to give an appearance of the passenger carred to said from the Cars free.

April, 23, 33

at her apprehensions, and made her think no more of them. Notwithstanding these objections, however, she determined to keep a watch into shink the bain of holy peace.

Who is that? O it cannot be!—but yes, it is he—and what a wreck! See, he shinks the bain of holy peace.

"Marshall," said the adjutant, addressing the remote cause of the passenger carred what a was left to carry but her plane is the plane and the remote cause of the passenger and preparing here of the carred wat in the passenger carred wat I wantle led to good, as in the ineather of I condem thee," send into her heart the bain of holy peace.

"Marshall," said the adjutant, addressing the plane is the plane and what a wreck! See, he shinks the bain of Swinger and the remote cause of the plane of the passenger and the remote cause of the passenger and the passenger and the marshall," said the adjutant, addressing the plane is the plane and the marshall," said the adjutant, addressing the plane is the plane and the marshall," said the adjutant, addressing the plane and the marshall the plane is the plane and the marshall," said the adjutant, addressing the plane and the marshall the plane is the plane and the marshall the passenger and the marshall the plane is the plane and the passenger and the plane is the plane and the marshall the plane is the plane in the passenger and the plane is the p ment. Determining, however, that so effort length seated upon her own chestnut pony, telligence from his scouts. Not long was he been complete, the results are painful to con- that she was in quest of her son and desired from the hitherto silent camp he heard the

for her absence about the house and left him. while spread out upon the ground before him party, throwing the dirt into the faces of some the crowd of women pacing up and down the Being now alone, she took off her shoes, and, lay maps of different sections of the country. of his men, but, fortunate for them, deing no guarded gallery one glides gently to my side, with the utmost caution, crept softly up the introducing her to the General, the lieutenant injury. The skirmishing below led the Eng. saying half sadly, "tis my babe." stairs to the door of the room in which were left the tent to rejoin his companions, while lish commander to believe that his other the officers, and putting her ear to the key Lydia proceeded to deliver herself of the in- scouting party had been intercepted; and for hole, heard the adjutant general read the order telligence which she had so happily gained a moment or two he felt an extreme desine to tear with her apron, she said in a choking doing his own housewerk, and not admitting camp of Washington. She could scarcely con- The surprise of Washington may well be force, and chastice the insolent rebles. Con tain herself, such was her agitation; and her conceived when he heard all the good woman vinced, however, that the Americans were heart beat so loudly the meanwhile, that she had to say, though, from the usual calmness ready to give him a warm and gallant recep- bread." was compelled for a moment to sustain her- of his features, it was oftentimes difficult to tion, and that any attempt to dislodge them self by the casing of the door, lest, in her trace in the expression of his countenance any or to attack them in position, prepared as they trepidation, she should fall, and thereby bring emotion, either of pain or pleasure. Always evidently were for him, would be fool-hardy ruin upon her family by an untimely discovered to be correctly informed himself and land dangerous in the extreme, the order was ery of her position by these within. As it cautious about receiving as truths every ru-|reluctantly given to retract, and the troops was, she but narrowly escaped detection; for mor that was uttered by busy tongues, or fell of the haughty British general, irritated the latch of the door, the noise of which had most particularly regarding what she had Philadelphia as quietly and harmlessly as enlattracted the notice of one of the adjutants heard, and why in the first place she had been they had issued from it only a few hours becompanions, who called his attention to it. - tempted to listen; then, and being well satis- fore, appearing, as the Adjutant General af-Then she was obliged to listen to the follow- fied that what she said could be depended up- terwards expressed himself, "more like a paring conversation; for to move at this juncture on, he offered to reward her for her faithful- cel of fools than a body of men who had marchness, which she declined with a delicacy that ed out to attack a foe." One party of the "Hark!" says the officer referred to. "We torbade him to be importunate upon the sub- scouts which had been sent out, had succeded

"I think not, Colonel," replied the adjutant me, in the name of the army and of the coun- party of eight had been cut off-three of them general; "it is only the wind, which you know t y, to thank you for this excellent service; having been killed by the musketry of the o netimes plays merrily with the door latches and, at the same time, permit me to say that Americans and the rest were taken prisoners. if a wise Providence ordains that I shall as As for Marshall, the spy, who had been sent "Some finger, different from the wind's tip- gain held my quarters in your good city, I down to penetrate the camp of Washington ped the latch of the door even now," said the shall take occasion to thank you more partic- he was taken prisoner in the act of making his Colonel. "I would not for a hundred sover- ularly in person at your own residence. In escape, and being recognized as a tory of the ons that we had been overheadd."
the meantime, I must bid you a good day; rankest and deepest dye, as well as a spy, he "Nor I for a thousand," said the adjutant for, as our friends, the British intend paying was next day tried and hung in the presence general. The family are trustworthy, and can us a visit to morrow, we must neglect nothin of the army.

distinguished gues s. eral, "if you are suspicious, I will open the the sergeant of the guard to escort her to the Washington saved to see the liberties of his door to convince you; but if there be a listen- out-posts, from whence she hastened back to country firmly established. No suspicion of These words increased the agitation of Ly - passed the British lines, and returned to the tered the mind of the Adjutant General; the dia; and she had scarcely strength left to city-gaining her own house without inter- he told her distinctly that he believed that the stepped forth to reconnoitre. They examined doubled, and strict orders given that no per-tirely acquired her of the act. the hall pretty thoroughly, looked down the stairway, and in ever nook except behind the clest, and satisfied at length that their secret Commander. Cannon were mounted, and he took econsion to call upon Mistress Hanwas safe, and that the colonel's cars must troops were paraded and drilled. But to all nah, when he again thanked her most hearthave deceived him, they again retired to their the officers the sudden change from inactivity for the important service she had render-room, and closed the door. The situation of ity to life was a mystery, though some were ed to the country, saying that he should al-Lydia during these few minutes was most shrewed enough to surmise that the General, ways remember her with kindness and affeccome to her, that she was about throwing reason, had determined to attack the British in her son, who was in the army, and whom he gift. Eudoxia disconcerned by his manner, herself upon their mercy and avowing the their quarters in Philadelphia, and by comwhole. But the danger passed and she retir- pelling them to evacuate, establish himself in on several occasions. ed noiselessly to her own room, to await their the city for the winter-a position much more departure from the house, before she should desirable than the cold and cheerless situation An Incident of the American Revo-lution.

determine what step she should take in refer-ence to the information she possessed. As ever, all their surmises failed to account for she departed from the door she heard the ad- the present condition of affairs; and Washjutant general laughing at the colonel for his ington considered the secret of so much im- World and Times. suspicions; and the remarks which followed portance that he deemed i imprudent to re-

Well, the evening of the 4th came; and out She had not been by the side of her hus- from the guarded and sentineled city, marchquarters were established at the house of Gen. and, as a last resort, she began to think of some ment, I can scarcely think it probable that Hist! Do you see that figure seated in the sir, but in recompense they sometimes do a an unknown comet in the Constellation Cassi-Jadwalder, in Second street, a few doors be- method to make available the information she Washington is aware of our intentions, and farther corner of the cell, with his hands or as great deal of good. The Emperor was disow Spruce; but for the purpose of private had so clandestinely obtained. At length she has laid his plans to surprise us; but this uned on his knees? His whole air and dress are pleased; he thought a modest silence at such small, round, bright appearance, with an ex-

On the 2d of December, 1777, the adjutant general came to Lydia and told her that they should be in the room by 7 o'clock that even remain ignorant of her movements. At length should be left untried to destroy the army of she departed from the city with a lighter, but kept in suspanse, however, for of two parties only a wooden platform raised over the stone the American commander, Howe on the 2.1 of still very anxious heart. She passed the mills who had been sent out, one came in and re-floor. It is for gutter drankards—too foul, December, communicated orders to the adju- on her way where leaving her bagshe basten- ported that the American army were already too loathsome to be placed upon a bed-turntant general for all the troops to march out of the city on the evening of the 4th, and attack washington by surprise. The managere was intended to be a bold one; and had its success inquired where she was going. She told him was about giving the order to advance, when him to accompany her to the tent of the Gen- bugles sounding the assembly, the ominous Through the grated window the light streams roll of the drum, and the tramping of feet as fall faintly upon a little pallet where, sweet dash ferward in the darkness, with his entire as we have seen, in rejoining the main body "At any rate," said he with a smile, 'allow before it commenced its retreat; but another ing to give them a reception worthy of such | Thus, in this instance, by the timely suspicion and warning of a woman, was the anni-Bowing Lydia out of his tent, he ordered hilation of the American army prevented, and the mill, and with her small grist of meal re- Lydia Hannah's agency in the affair ever en-American General had been advised of the near the door, before it was opened, and the Now, in the camp of Washington, all was movements through the medium of some peradjutant general and his friend the colonel bustle. Pickets were placed, the guard was son connected with the house, though he en-

Fanny Fern in the Tombs.

Fanny Fern has visited the Tombs. Henr up the other side.

el, unless, perhaps, where they are connected within half a mile of the A-with great events; but we do profess to be-with great events.

"S olen a pair of shoes!"

the American army. Her next tho't was to "True, indeed. But one might expect to kept on hand; for death laughs at bolts and the end, more happy than her successful rival. dated Shanghai, 21st September, mention lence here is too intense, and must have a God may ever know at whose breside stands was a man of ferocious temper, and there with the Japanese authorities in negotiations his vacant chair.

round all the arrangements, amazingly puzzled the womanly curiosity of Lydia; and she at once conceived a suspicion that something terrible was plotting. These suspicions she communicated to her husband, who only laughed at her apprehensions, and made her think no more of them. Notwithstanding these objects.

Well, perhaps it is so. Let us ride in and determination, he insisted that she should be stoned from her tank, and imace impression and the three Russian officers stone floor, with her womanly love of order, present then send to me sergeant Marshall."

The two officers stone floor, with her womanly love of order, present then send to me sergeant Marshall."

The two officers stone floor, with her womanly love of order, present then send to me sergeant Marshall."

The two officers joined again the main body, the saling Empress there was no necessity for her to have a companied by the servant maid. This also then send to me sergeant Marshall."

The two officers joined again the main body, the saling Empress there was no necessity for her to have a companied by the servant maid. This also then send to me sergeant Marshall."

The two officers joined day the server the womanly love of order, present the server to superintend the server to superintend the server to superintend the server the server that the round and the three Russian officers stone floor, with her womanly love of order, present the server th

NUMBER 48. More cells? but there is no bed in them;

Look there! tread softly, angels are near us. accompanied by two officers, took possession of their room. In a short time afterwards, Lydia succeeded in getting her family off to bed; but her own curiosity being naturally excited, she framed some excuse to her husband for the family of the place ited, she framed some excuse to her husband for the family of the general and his is holy. I stooped to kiss its foreneal family of the family is one who judgeth not as man judgeth; who murderer, in consequence of some alarm, holdeth evenly the scales of justice; who made a sudden retreat without having time to weigheth against our sins the whirlpool of our temptations; who forgetteth never the countless struggles for the victory ere the despond- in her 17th year had been married to a man in her confusion and alarm she had touched apon the public ear he questioned Mrs. Hanah disappointment, returned to their quarters in ing weary hearts, shuts out the light of heav-

The Apple.

HISTORICAL ANECDOTES. The apple, with its various hues-ruddy. Meantime the engraver had rate. With age golden and russet—form a handsome group, came ambition. A few days since he in-accompanied by its oblong relatives, the formed his mistress that he must quit her, as mottled pear and the tawny quince. The apple is unfortunate in having acquired the reputation of mischief making fruit ever since the degradation of "aple" has been applied to the fruit of ill omen caten by Eve. The render will remember the trite examples in the classic mythology of the apple of discord, the golden apples which caused the swift footed Atolanta to lose her fateful race mistress, and contained these words: "I am mistress, and contained these words: "I am and the apple of Acontius which brought so not able to survive your abondonment; when much sickness and suffering to Cydippe, and is immortalized in Ovid's Heroic Epistles. In latter times, an apple was, indeed a fruit of discord to the immerial family of Berentian. discord to the imperial family of Byzantium charcoal. Theodosidus the younger Emperor of the East, in the fifth century, had married the beautiful, accomplished, and celebrated Eudoxia, (called Athenias before her conversa- Evening Traveller warns families against mation to Christianity,) and for many years he king bread with muriatic acid and soda. He entertained the very strongest affection for says, that "it would be a nice reciept if the her. There came to the court of Constan- muriatic soid were pure. But 1 have found unople. Paulinus, a philosopher who was from six years' experience in using it in cookhighly esteemed for his learning by Eudoxia.

One day she unregardingly bestowed on him, as a mark of friendship, a remarkable fine apple with which she had been presented by pepsia, accompanied with pain in the bowels, and the property of the presented by personal property of the presented by the Theodosidus. Paulinus, ignorant of these weariness, and low spirits. Three years ago and, in a steri tone, demanded what she had done with his was unhappily tempted to an untruth, and replied she had eaten it. The Emperor confirmed in his suspicions, produced the apple convicted her of falcehood, taxed her with with which the flag had pursuled his fortunes. infidelity, and banished her from Constan in what she says about it, in N. Y. Musical ople forever. She retired to Palestine, where miliation and exile. The unfortunate Paulin "I am weary of this hollow show and glitter us was put to death by the orders of Theo weary of Fashion's sterotyped lay-figures, desius. Thus was an apple fatal to the peace -weary of smirking fops and brainless belles, of the powerful, the b autiful and the wise. I believe if I go to de devil, dat same flag exchanging their small coin of flattery and The reader will be interested by companie their endless genefluxions: Let us go out this historical anecdote with the strikingly of Broadway -- somewere -- anywhere. Turn similar story of "the Three Apples" in the round the wheel, Dame Fortune, and show Arabian Nights. The Byzantine historians business he may be engaged in, have a respect "The Tombs!" we never thought to be judgment of Paris, in which the prize in a The other day, in the neighborhood of the with great events; but we do profess to believe that a high and supernatural power often condescend to direct and influence the affairs of nations. We may trace it from the earliest of nations. We may trace it from the earliest of nations. They had reached in the interpretation of the process of the second of the process of the process of the second of the second of the process of the second of the second of the process of the second of the process of the second of the secon We gaze into the narrow cells and draw a for their cha ms to repair to Constantinople, to a small pile of tempting red ones. We shall BENTISTEYS and the hand of the Deity is as visibly displays of modern nations as in those of antiquity; and most purificularly in Complete Surgeon Dentist, Respect Fully tenders professional services that era of our history, when the godlike natural teeth, or the insertion of artificial teeth, o and his eyes seemed to say they would seek mentis' !- Knikerbocker. Poor child! he never heard of "Swartwout." no further. "Truly," said he, as gozed adnition of our independence.

During the occupation of Philadelphia by the British under General Howe, the head the bouse of Green we have taken to secure secreey in this move-scale!

How should be know that he was put in there will be with evaluation of the preceding thought it in the face of all the precautions which not for stealing, but for doing it on so small a otten do a great deal of mischief." I cassing the we have taken to secure secreey in this move-scale!

How should be know that he was put in there will be with the was put in the control of the precautions which not for stealing, but for doing it on so small a otten do a great deal of mischief." I cassing the we have taken to secure secreey in this move-scale!

How should be know that he was put in the control of the precautions which not for stealing, but for doing it on so small a otten do a great deal of mischief." I cassing the we have taken to secure secreey in this move-scale.

How should be know that he was put in there will be a small a distribution of the precautions which not for stealing, but for doing it on so small a otten do a great deal of mischief." I cassing the precautions which not for stealing the small and the shows that he was put in the control of the precautions with the small and the know that he was put in the control of the precautions and the small and thought it incumbent on her to reply: "Yes Newark, N. J., on Friday evening, discovered an as that here?

"For murder," how sad! Somewhere in Icasia, and the golden prize he had been on short observation it changed its place very was a back room in the second story. The family consisted of William and Lydia Hanah until finally she resolved to be the bearer of the damp and foggy state of the atmosphere heart is aching because she spared the rod to the land a mother's heart is aching because she spared the rod to the land a mother's heart is aching because she spared the rod to the land a mother's heart is aching because she spared the rod to the land a mother's heart is aching because she spared the rod to the land a mother's heart is aching because she spared the rod to the land a mother's heart is aching because she spared the rod to the land a mother's heart is aching because she spared the rod to the land a mother's heart is aching because she spared the rod to the land a mother's heart is aching because she spared the rod to the land a mother's heart is aching because she spared the rod to the land a mother's heart is aching because she spared the rod to the land a mother's heart is aching because she spared the rod to the land a mother's heart is aching because she spared the rod to the land a mother's heart is aching because she spared the rod to the land a mother's heart is aching because she spared the rod to the land a mother's heart is aching because she spared the rod to the land a mother's heart is aching because she spared the rod to the land a mother's heart is aching because she spared the rod to the land a mother's heart is aching because she spared the rod to the land a mother's heart is aching because she spared the rod to the land a mother's heart is aching because she spared the rod to the land a mother's heart is aching because she spared the rod to the land a mother's heart is aching because she spared the rod to the land a mother's heart is aching because she spared the rod to the land a mother's heart is aching because she spared the rod to the land a mother's heart is aching the rod to the land a mother's heart is aching the rod to the land a mother's heart is aching the rod to the land a mother's heart is achin a cloister, where she amused her leisure by There is a coffin, untenanted as yet, but writing several works of merit; and was in The Russians at Japan,-Private letters was no union of soul between them. After which were not terminated on the 1st of Sep-And here is a woman's cell. There are two died leaving against the four gots from gotten ready, the fire made, and every Ascertaining that they were in want of meaning in it.

And here is a woman's cell. There are two died leaving against the died leaving against the wickedness of our expedition leads you to give or the fire made, and every
This, of course was readily acceded to; the got of the fire made, and every
The Russian ships before Nanga-a tember. The Russian ships before Nanga-a tember. The Russian ships before Nanga-a wickedness of her son, the young Emperarces than will, and a bonnet for which she has little use.

Wighted a monator of derivative when the fire made, and every
Michael a monator of derivative when the fire made, and every
Michael a monator of derivative when the fire made, and every
Michael a monator of derivative when the fire made, and every
Michael a monator of derivative when the fire made, and every
Michael a monator of derivative when the fire made, and every
Michael a monator of derivative when the fire made, and every
Michael a monator of derivative when the fire made, and every
Michael a monator of derivative when the fire made and every
Michael a monator of derivative when the fire made and every
Michael a monator of derivative when the fire made and every
Michael a monator of derivative when the fire made and every
Michael a monator of derivative when the fire made and every
Michael a monator of derivative when the fire made and every
Michael a monator of the fire made and every
Michael a monator of the fire made and every Michael a monator of the fire made and the fire made and every
Michael a monator of the fire made and every
Michael a monator of the fire made and every
Michael a monator of the fire made and every
Michael a monator of the fire made and every
Michael a monator of the fire made and the fire made and every
Michael a monator of the fire made and every
Michael a monator of the fire made and every

Mich Her friends have brought her some little bits Michael, a monster of depravity, who soon port Prince Menschikoff. We see by accounts "Well, perhaps it is so. Let us ride in and of carpeting, which she has spread over the deposed Theodora from her rank, and im- from St Petersburg that three Russian officers genius, carried away Idune, and kept her prisoner in a thick forest. The gods were in a danger of becoming decreph, till Lok was was conquered by Thor the Thunderer, and forced to restore Iduna and her rejuvenating fruit. This fable seems derived from some obscure tradition of the fruit of the tree of life, and of Eve and the serpent.

In the classic mpthology apples are sacred to Venus, from her gaining the prize of the golden apples from Paris in his famous judgment, and they were dedicated to Hercules from his conquest of the golden fruit of the from his conquest, of the golden fruit of the Hesperides. In the Pythian games, apples consecrated to Apollo were the reward of the

In England it was long customary to bless the new apples on St. James' day (July 25.) and on the twelfth day to sprinkle apple trees with libations of cider, accompanied by the singing of some rude ancient rhymes, a custom supposed to be a relic of rites of Po-

The apples mentioned by Solomon in Canticles is believed to be citron (citrus midica;) for the apple is not grown in Palestine. So omon describes the fruit as of golden color, and with a fragrant and reviving scentcircumstances true of the citron, but not of the apple.

CRIME IN PARIS.-The Paris correspondent of the New York Courier and Enquirer relates the following:—

Murder, suicides and robberies are of every day occurrence here. Among the recent mur "It is so sweet, and pure; and holy," said L ders is that of a literary man, M. Desprez, who The mother's lip quivered, wiping away a was so miserly that he lived entirely alone, any servant or even relations within his doors "Ah, it is little the likes of you ma'am know His rooms were in a most filthy state, not havnow hard it is for us to get the honest ing been swept for years and yet he had more "God be thanked," thought I "that there retary, besides scrip to a large amout. The much older than herself, and soon afterwards conceived a passion for a young engraver, residing in the Isle of St. Louis. She left her husband to go and live with him she loved. and they remained ogether for fifteen years.

To THE WOMEN .- A writer in the Boston circumstances, carried the apple a respectable my physician told methat I must be taking offering to the Emperor. The latter recog- lead in some form, but I did not then suspect nizing the fruit, and conceiving a jealous sus- my muriatic acid of containing it."

> IT FOLLOWED HIM -- When the American flag was unfurled from its staff in Tampico. an aged Spaniard was heard inveighing with lugubrious earnestness against the pertinacity

> " I was de Spanish consul in de Louisanne, out soon dat flag he was raise, and I go to Pensacola, but soon dat flag was over me dare. I live don in de Texas, but dat flag follow me dare. Says, I go where de flag never come; I come to Tampico, but here is dat flag again. will follow me dare."

"We like to see a man, no matter what furnish us with a trait resembling the classic for it. It elevates labor and ennobles trade girl of high rank and exceeding loveliness, what Mrs Partington terms 'aon compour

ANOTHER COMET.-Mr. Van Arsdale, of